From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 15.

Naples, Sept. 21.

LAST Night arriv'd here a Courier from Spain, with Diſpatches for our Viceroy; and [illegible]r'd Order is come for ſiezing the Eſtates and Effects of all thoſe that are diſcover'd to be in the Intereſt of the Houſe of Auſtria; our Viceroy on the Receipt of theſe Diſpatches ſent away an Expreſs to Rome and another to Palermo. The Suſpicions and Conſternation of the Viceroy and Council, are augmented by the bad News we have receiv'd of the Battle before Turin; of which little is ſaid, while a formal Relation is publiſh'd of the Advantage gain'd over the Imperialiſts near Caſtiglione.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Octob. 12.

From the Army of the 2 Crowns at Puozo, Sept. 20. Some were of Opinion that the Army of the Allies would have ſtop'd at Huete and Cuenca, becauſe they had fortify'd thoſe two Places, and could not have been attack'd in them without great Hazard, by reaſon of the Defiles and Mountains about them; but they abandon'd thoſe two Towns the 17th of this Month, and paſs'd the River Xucar over the Bridge of Olivarez, to retire into the Kingdom of Valencia, by the High-Road of Requena. We were not able to get up with them, and conſequently could not fall on their Rear-Guard; and are even oblig'd to halt here to furniſh our ſelves with Proviſions, which will take us up ſeveral Doys. King Philip has left the Army, and is return'd to Madrid, whither his Queen is to come back from Burgos.

Madrid, Sept. 21. King Philip after he had follow'd the Enemys Army as far as Ucles, and held a great Council of War with the Generals of the 2 Crowns, come hither 2 Days ago with 2 Battallions and 4 Squadrons of his Guards. His Majeſty has turn'd out all the Miniſters of State and all the Members of the ſeveral Tribunals, who refus'd to follow him when he retir'd ſome time ago from this Capital on the Approach of the Portugueſe Army, and who acknowledg'd afterwards King Charles III. Their Places are already fill'd up by others, and his Majeſty has caus'd a Placard to be publiſh'd, whereby all theſe diſcarded Miniſters are injoyn'd to depart this City in 24 Hours, but not to go above 2 or 3 Leagues off, that they may be at hand to anſwer what they ſhall be accus'd of, and be puniſh'd or accquited. All of them have already obey'd this Order, except the Marquis de Laguna, who to excuſe himſelf alledges, that he was not preſent at any Council in the Abſence of his Majeſty, and that as a Grandee of the Kingdom and of the firſt Claſs, he ought to have had this Order ſignified to him by ſome other Perſon than by the Preſident of the Indies. The Count of Laſtrella, great Chamberlain of Caſtile, has Orders to inquire into the Conduct of ſuch of the King's Houſhold as continu'd here; ſeveral of whom have already been turn'd out, for having ſhewn too much Affection for King Charles, and among others the Purueyor and the Harbinger of the Stables, who are both Knights. The Count de Fontanara, Steward of the Houſhold to his Majeſty, is baniſh'd to Valadolid, and the Count Punno to Longrode. The Count de Lemos is condemn'd to perpetual Impriſonment, and all his Eſtate is confiſcated, except 1000 Piſtoles a Year, that the King has left him for his own Maintenance. Several other Grandees are condemn'd to the like Puniſhments, and divers other Perſons are ſent to the Galleys. The Counts of Araguelas and of Roquena are carried Priſoners to the Caſtle of Bayone in France, whither the Patriarch of the Indies and the Biſhop of Barceſona were lately ſent: And the Biſhop of Segovia and a certain Abbot are carried to the Caſtle of Pie de Pork. A great number of other Perſons, who were well affected to the Houſe of Auſtria, are likewiſe impriſon'd or exil'd. After the Portugueſe retir'd from this City very great Cruelties were us'd to many Perſons in the ſame Intereſt: Some of whom having taken Sanctuary in the Churches, were drag'd out in a violent Manner notwithſtanding the Proteſtations of the Vicar of the Inquiſition, and his Threats of Excommunication againſt the Judges who had order'd this Violence. However, not one Priſoner for State-Affairs has been put to Death, ſince the Generals of the Army of the Allies ſent to give Notice to the Duke of Berwick that they would uſe Repriſals and treat in the ſame manner thoſe in the Intereſt of King Philip, that ſhould chance to fall into their Hands. The Count de Monterey, who kept at his Seat at Alcobendas near this City, becauſe he had the Gour, came hither laſt Saturday: but he was immediately commanded back, with Orders not to ſtir from his Houſe. An Inventory has been taken of the Effects which the Queen Dowager was oblig'd to leave at Toledo. 'Tis ſaid that 50000 Piſtoles were taken from one of her Ladies, to whoſe keeping her Majeſty had intruſted them; and that this Sum has been imploy'd to pay her Creditors, who came to ask their Money of the King.

Bayone, Sept. 26. At the Requeſt of the Duke of Grammont the King of France has granted that the Queen Dowager of Spain ſhall tarry in this City, and not be carried to Pau in Bearn as was firſt intended. The laſt Letters from Spain, ſay a certain Monk nam'd Sarge is put into an Iron Cage where he has not Room to lie down, and has a little Bread and Water given him once a Day juſt to keep him alive: And Three Brothers nam'd Moras are condemn'd to perpetual Impriſonment, for ſhewing themſelves well-affected to King Charles. The Priſons of this Place and of Pampelona are fill'd with Priſoners

Prisoners of the same Party, that have been sent from Madrid and thereabouts. 'Tis observ'd that these Violences have extremely irritated the Spanish Nation against King Philip. The Arragonians who declar'd some Time ago for King Charles, continue the Blockade of Jaca, which is the only Place in Arragon that holds for King Philip.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 15.

Leipsick, Oct. 6. Our Fair began on Sunday last, but in all Appearance it will be very inconsiderable, by reason of the present Trouble in our Electorate. The States of the Country are assembled here, pursuant to the Summons of the King of Sweden, and Yesterday several Propositions or Demands were made to them in the Name of his Swedish Majesty, and among others to give him an Account of all the Subsidies ordinary and extraordinary that have been granted to King Augustus since the beginning of the present War in Poland, and of the Course taken to levy them, that the Contributions which his Swedish Majesty demands may be rais'd by the same Means. The Regency of this Electorate forbad the States to hearken to any Propositions of his said Majesty, pretending that he ought to address himself to them, but he would have nothing to do with them, resolving to treat only with the States of the Country. His Majesty's Quarters are still at Alt-Ranstad, two Leagues from hence. King Stanislaus came thither to see him on Sunday last, attended by Prince Alexander Sobieski and several other Polish Lords, and went away Yesterday in the Evening to return to his Quarters of Lesnick. The King of Sweden's Horse with 3 or 4 Troops of Walachians are canton'd in the Neighbourhood of that Town. The greatest Part of his Foot is gone into Quarters of Refreshment in the Province of Mitnia, and all his Troops observe a pretty good Discipline since the Publication of an Ordonnance to that Purpose, and of the Truce for 10 Weeks. General Steinboch with several other General Officers have taken their Quarters here: The King of Sweden shews great Devotion in the Worship of God, and all the Army after his Example, say their Prayers on their Knees Morning and Evening,

Letters from Warsaw of the 28th of September, say King Augustus's Party in Poland is increas'd since King Stanislaus went after the King of Sweden into Saxony: That it was advis'd King Augustus design'd to be at Lublin with his Army the 25th of that Month, to joyn Prince Menzikow who was come thither with 30000 Muscovite Horse and was to be follow'd by 45000 Foot of that Nation. But that it was uncertain whether King Augustus design'd with these Forces to follow the Enemy to Saxony, or make an Irruption into Pomerania. These Advices tell us, that General Leuweshaupt who commands for the King of Sweden in Livonia and Courland, threatens to enter Lithuania with a Body of 15000 Men; and has already summon'd the City of Wilna to pay him 60000 Crowns Contributions.
